

SERC BROWN BAG SEMINAR 2013-2014 Schedule

Location: MM Campus (WC 130); BBC (MSB 105)

Time: 12:00 Noon (One hour)

Date	Speaker	Title
Sept 11 th , 2013	Chris McVoy	The Ridge and Slough Everglades across Space and Time: Thoughts on Restoration
Oct 9 th , 2013	Tom Frankovich	Reduced light availability complicates submerged aquatic vegetation restoration in estuaries thought to be controlled by variable salinity.
Nov 13 th , 2013*	Laurel Larson (UC, Berkeley)	Structural and functional connectivity of complex aquatic landscapes
Dec 11 th , 2013	John Kominoski	The functional implications of accelerated terrestrial carbon loss in freshwater ecosystems
Jan 8 th , 2014	Thomas Bianchi (University of Florida)	Anthropogenic and Natural Effects of the Biogeochemistry of carbon cycling in the Mississippi/Atchafalaya and Changjiang River System
Feb 12 th , 2014	Evelyn Gaiser	Advancing Limnological Theory through the Global Lakes Ecological Observatory Network
March 19 th , 2014	Jennifer Rehage	TBA
April 9 th , 2014	Mike Ross	How South Florida hardwood hammocks vary in space and time

* On Nov 13th, room number at MMC is PG5-155;

 In March, it is 3rd Wednesday of the month (2nd Wednesday is during the Spring Break)

Jay Sah
Research Faculty
AY 2013-14 Seminar Coordinator
(305) 348 1658, sahj@fiu.edu